OEHS Wolf Parents Scholarship

2018-19 Scholarship Requirements and Application Procedures

The Oswego East High School Wolf Parents group is a charitable, non-profit, service organization. We promote opportunities for parents and guardians to get and stay involved with our school as we help our students navigate through the high school years.

The OEHS Wolf Parents group will be providing scholarships to two senior students in the amount of $1000 per recipient. These scholarships are one-time grants, designated to assist OEHS students pursuing further education.

Eligibility Requirements

The nominee must be a current OEHS Senior in good academic standing (signature of School Counselor required as endorsement).

Scholarship Requirements

The nominee must be an OEHS 2018-19 academic year graduate. The nominee must be accepted by a post-secondary institution in order for the scholarship funds to be disbursed. Post-secondary institutions include colleges, universities, technical, and vocational schools.

Selection Criteria

Applicants will be evaluated on the basis of their essay and dedication to their high school experience. A request of transcripts may be required as part of the selection process.

The selection committee will be comprised of representatives of the community and school. No identifying information will be given to the selection committee. Parents, guardians or relatives of the applicants may not serve on any scholarship committee.

Procedures

The Oswego East High School Wolf Parents Scholarship application packet contains the following forms:

- Personal Information
- School Counselor Endorsement

Applicants must also have two recommendations from a teacher, counselor, coach, or administrator at OEHS. Those completing the letters of recommendations must place the letters in a sealed envelope and sign across the seal of the envelope prior to giving the letters to the applicant.

All applicants will write an essay reflecting on the following topics:

- What life lessons have you learned from your high school experience at OEHS?
- How has your high school experience at OEHS prepared you for the future?
- How have you influenced others?

Essays must be typed with the applicant's name appearing on the first page and should not exceed 500 words.
